The leading membership organisation for independent funders in the West Midlands

Who We Are

Pauline Roche - Chair, CTWM

WM FUNDERS NETWORK (WMFN) is a support network for funders operating in the West Midlands

For over 40 years we have been helping our members to work more effectively and increase their impact on people and communities.

You may be the only representative of your organisation in the region, or the only person administering your funds; you may be part of a large team with a remit that involves keeping abreast of what is happening around funding in the West Midlands. Whatever your circumstances, the opportunities to network and collaborate through membership of WMFN are invaluable. By co-ordinating and improving our funding practices we can better meet the needs of the diverse communities in the region.

I believe WMFN is an essential and challenging network for funders and for the voluntary and community sector. Please join us.

Join Us

Become a member of WMFN for a great opportunity to make new contacts, meet people facing similar challenges, learn from others and help to shape and increase the impact of grant giving and funding in the West Midlands region.

Membership is open to staff, volunteers, trustees and directors of charitable trusts and foundations, as well as other funders, commissioners and policy-makers.

Our members range from large national trusts that give grants in the region to locally-based grant givers and individuals.

Together we can achieve so much more!
